DODGE'S PATENT GRATES AND STOVES—We ask the particular attention of both and honesters to a careful perusal of the advertisement of Mr. J. Blakeley, agent for this patent and sets of rights. Now, we say to everybodys who wishes to save fifty per cent. in fuel, and forty percent. in heat, to avail themselves of this opportunity to have their grates reset with Dodge's patent. We have seen this grate in use. It creates no dust—like all those now in use—when the fire is stirred. This grate is simple, efficient, and practicable—saving fuel, heating and radiating the heat down into the room, instead of passing up the chimney—impressing the cold draft through the room to the fire, and saving labor in feeding the fire; adapted either to coal, coal slack, or wood. We repeat, that we have seen this patent in use, and we are constrained to say that it will do all that is represented to do.

Mr. Blakeley will be here in a few days, and all who wish their grates reset with this patent improvement, will do well to leave their orders at this office, where references and circulars can be had. There are hundreds in use in Cincinnati.

FIGHTS ON SUNDAY.—Sunday has become a favorite day in some localities for fighting. Last Sunday morning, between eleven and twelve, there was a fight at the Eclipse House, on Sixth street, between Main and Market; the circumstances of which we did not learn; saw some of the police leave the house in company with one or two not police, and suppose an arrest was made. Shortly after one o'clock, at a coffee house on the north side of Market, between tenth and eleventh, kept by a man named Meyers, a fight occurred between Wm. Bedgett and Pat Dougherty, in which the latter was badly cut up about the face; no arrests made. We are informed that fights occur at this house nearly every Sunday—that the proprietor has no license, but is permitted by the police to keep open; we hope this is a mistake.

In the forenoon a difficulty occurred at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson, between Messrs. Stephen and Powers, partners, growing, no doubt, out of some partnership quarrel, in the course of which Stephen received some severe warts in the face, and about the head and neck. Powers was arrested.

MESSRS. S. G. HENRY & CO. sell this morning, at ten o'clock, at auction, a large and general stock of fresh and desirable fall and winter goods, ladies' gents' misses', and boys' merino underwear and gloves. In the afternoon, at half past two o'clock, they will sell an invoice of men's, women's, children's and misses' boots and shoes, with a splendid stock of portmanteaus and pocket-books, just received. They will call special attention to their sale to morrow morning, Wednesday, at ten o'clock, of an invoice of Louisville manufacture heavy winter clothing, with a splendid line of new style of Marseilles and linen boone shirts, and all wool underwear.

Fruit Trees!—Fruit Trees!—We direct the attention of readers to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. Allen. He offers, at his nursery, on the Louisville and Taylorsville turnpike road, eight miles from the city, a choice assortment of well-grown fruit trees of the most popular varieties, together with grape-vines, gooseberries, strawberry plants, &c. Orders addressed to Mr. Allen, at Jeffersontown, Ky., will meet with prompt attention. His trees are very superior and thrifty specimens.

LARGE JEWELRY HOUSE.—Our readers will do well to read the advertisement in another column, of Messrs. Bailey & Co., jewelers and dealers in precious stones, diamonds, watches, and manufacturers of silver ware of every description. This is the largest and best house in the city of Philadelphia, and keep the best selected stock of goods to be found anywhere in the East. Send them your orders, and whenever you go East, call at their large establishment No. 119 Chestnut street, near the Girard House.

MURDER IN MARION COUNTY.—We are indebted to our clever little friend, Frank Sweeny, newsboy on the Louisville and Nashville railroad for the following item:

On Sunday evening about five o'clock, two men—Lloyd and James Martin, got into a difficulty about a debt which Martin owed Lloyd, words passed, when Lloyd drew a knife and stabbed Martin to the heart, killing him instantly. The affray occurred on the Lebanon Branch of the Louisville and Nashville road, about five miles from the Junction. Lloyd was arrested and placed in the Lebanon jail.

THE CITIZEN GUARDS have their regular meeting to-night, at the armory.

DAILY MARKETS.—We copy the following first rate notice from the Journal of yesterday, and we fully endorse every word in praise of this enterprising firm. It is emphatically the place to buy furniture.

ENTERTAINMENT.—We would call the attention of those who are about leaving or passing through to their Southern homes, to the large and elegant assortment of Louisville made furniture, which grace the warehouses of Messrs. J. M. Stokes & Son, near the corner of Main and Fourth streets.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

Jeffersonville Railroad.

On and after Monday, July 12, 1858, trains on the Jeffersonville Railroad will leave Jeffersonville, opposite Louisville, at 6:30 a. m., and 10 p. m., daily, Sundays excepted.

Closes connections made by the 10:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains at Seymour, with trains on the St. Louis, Missouri & R. R., for St. Louis, Monroe City, Cairo, Jefferson City, Kansas, Quincy, and Keokuk.

The 6:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains run through to Indianapolis, and form close connections with trains on the Terre Haute, Lafayette, and Indiana Central Railroads, and the principal cities in the West, West, and North.

The 6:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains connect at Seymour with trains on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad for Cincinnati.

The 10 p. m. train on Saturdays only goes to Seymour, where connections are made for Cincinnati.

One train on Sunday, at 10 p. m., running through to Indianapolis, connecting at Seymour for St. Louis and Cairo, also Cincinnati and the East, and at Indianapolis for the principal cities East, West, and North.

Only change of cars between Louisville and New Albany.

Haggard charged to all the principal cities. All changes of cars made by trains running into the same depot, thereby avoiding among O'mahans rules incidental to other routes ending from Louisville to the West and Northwest. Time as quiet, and fare low as any other place.

Through tickets and further information given in the Company's Office, No. 357, southeast corner of Main and Third streets, Louisville, Ky., or at the depot in Jeffersonville.

Mound City, Illinois.

There will be another sale of lots, at public auction, in this growing young city on the 24th and 25th of November next, at which time a large amount of valuable property will be offered and sold, upon terms of one-fourth cash, the balance in three equal annual payments.

John D. Bourne has taken the real estate office, No. 363 Sixth street, between Main and Market, three doors from Main, for the transaction of the seed and agricultural business.

Acknowledging his indebtedness for past favors, he assures his friends, and all others wanting goods in his line, that nothing shall be left undone to merit a continuance of their favors.

October 24th.

CLOTHING TRADE.—It is in the recollection of the greater portion of our citizens, when a respectable out-fit in the way of dress, made a man a man in this city, and when it might also be said, that it was not altogether creditable to be engaged in the business. But things have changed very materially, of late years. That branch of trade has grown in importance, until it is looked upon both as respectable and useful, and commands a high price, not to mention its extent as long as men of taste and discrimination are at the head of it. When a citizen, or a stranger, visiting the city, can step into such an establishment as that of J. M. Armstrong's, corner Fourth and Main, opposite the National Hotel, and can get any article in the line of men's or women's ready made, coats, cloaks, dresses, pants, caps, vests, shirts, under-wear, and garments, gloves, shawls, gaiters, scarfs, suspenders, &c., of the newest and most desirable styles at such exceedingly low prices, they will not hesitate to do so.

LADIES' EVENING DRESS GOONS.—Silk Robes in all colors, Illusion, Lace, Crepe, and Tail Robes. Ladies desiring the latest styles of these goods of every description, will find at the store of E. T. TAYLOR, corner of Fourth and Main, opposite the National Hotel, 1858.

BUTTERY.—Open daily from 10 a. m. till 5 p. m. and from 3 to 8 p. m., when stores may be secured in any advance of 50 cents.

ALFRED N. GILBERT, Treasurer.
